

Timeline of the Internet

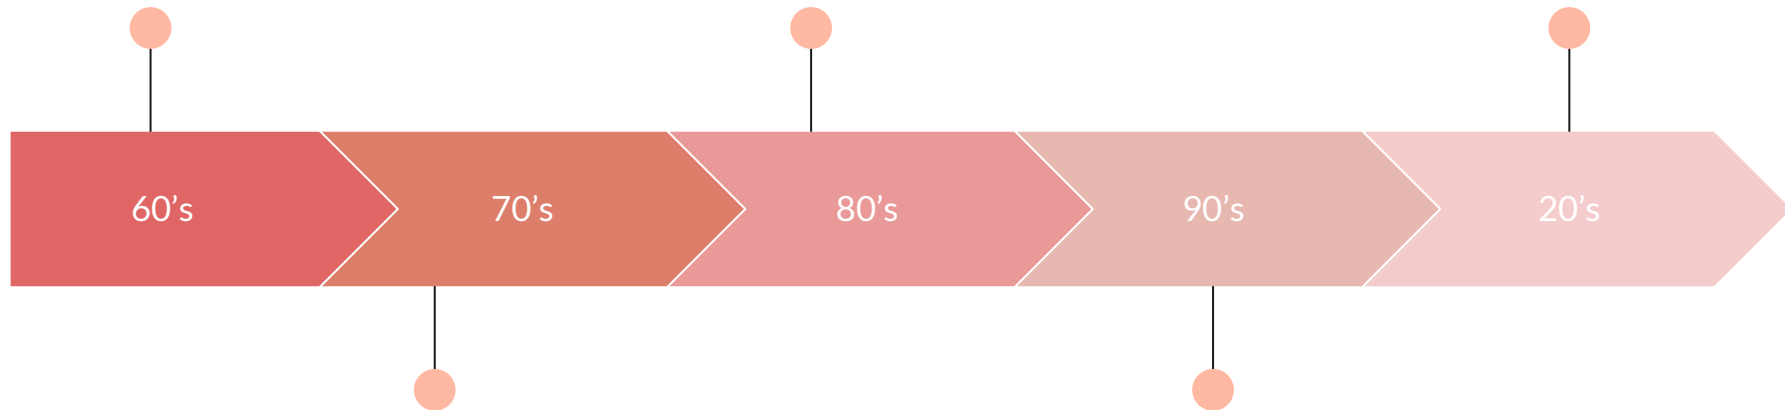

J.C.R Licklider describes a network to share data between computers.

ARPANET launches

ARPANET is officially switched to TCP/IP
The DNS is created.
Cyberattacks become more frequent.

Facebook, Twitter and Google launch.

The first iPhone is released.

First public demonstration of the ARPANET

TCP/IP is developed.

Tim Berners-Lee develops a prototype of the World Wide Web.
The World Wide Web goes public.
The Consumer Web Takes Shape.

Thanks for watching

